

UTD004: CAMPUS - 2 - CORPORATE
	L	T	P	Cr
	2	0	0	2
Course Objective: This course aims to sensitize students with the gamut of skills which facilitate them to enhance their employability quotient and do well in the professional space. These skills are imperative for students to transition smoothly from campus to corporate and establish a stronger connect with the environment in which they operate.
Syllabus • Group Dynamics & Collaboration: Learn concepts and evaluation parameters for Group Discussions; Understand opening techniques in Group Discussions; Understand how to perform different roles in Group Discussions; Experience practice sessions on Group Discussions • Presentations: Understand the elements of an effective presentation; Plan the different parts of the presentation, with an understanding of the corresponding challenges in each part; Understand how to manage an audience during a presentation; Understand the process and technique of managing an impromptu presentation • Case Analysis: Learn concepts and evaluation parameters for solving case-based problems; Apply SPACER approach to solving case-based problems; particular focus on conducting cost-benefit analysis to evaluate multiple alternatives while arriving at solutions to case-based problems, and generating a final solution to a case problem on the principles of sustainability, effectiveness and value creation for various stakeholders; Apply stakeholder approach to solving case-based problems; Experience practice sessions on case discussions • Interview Skills: Learn concepts and evaluation parameters for personal interviews; Learn the art & science of introduction for personal interviews; Learn the way to navigate the interview in a preferred direction; Learn how to lead the panel in personal interviews and minimize opportunity cost; Experience practice sessions on Personal Interviews. • Role Specific Modules: Understand specific assessment parameters of companies participating regularly in campus placement; learn concepts and fundamentals core to such an assessment, (for example: areas like financial statements, basics of accounting, investment banking, banking & non-banking finance are important for companies offering the role of financial analyst; areas like analytics are important for companies offering the role of business analyst)
Course Learning Objectives (CLO) CLO1: Able to evaluate multiple alternatives while arriving at solutions to case-based problems, and generating a final solution to a problem on the principles of sustainability, effectiveness, and value creation for various stakeholders. CLO2 Able to work effectively within a team, contributing to leadership, fostering a collaborative and inclusive environment, setting goals, planning tasks, and achieving objectives. CLO3: Develop the ability to communicate effectively with diverse audiences, ensuring clarity, understanding, and engagement across various contexts. CLO4: Demonstrate proficiency in analyzing problems, generating insights, and formulating strategic recommendations tailored to organizational needs. CLO5: Develop the ability to explore and articulate the role of a business analyst within a data-driven organizational landscape, including proficiency in analyzing data for effective decision-making.
Text Books 7. Harvard Business Essentials; Creating Teams with an Edge; Harvard Business School Press (2004) 8. Edward de B., Six Thinking Hats; Penguin Life (2016)

9. Daniel, G., Working with Emotional Intelligence; Bantam Books (2000)
10. Other supplemental materials: Instructor prepared material disseminated through social media tools & apps

Evaluation Scheme

Sr. No.	Evaluation elements	Weightage (%)
1	EST	50
2	Sessional	40
3	Assignment	10